Stefan Ingves will not participate in tomorrow's press conference

Stefan Ingves will not participate in tomorrow's press conference on the monetary policy decision due to influenza. He did, however, participate in today's monetary policy meeting and decision by telephone.

Kerstin af Jochnick also participated in the meeting and decision by telephone for the same reason.

The decision from the monetary policy meeting will be published on 14 February at 09:30. As previously announced, a press conference on the monetary policy decision will be held at 11:00 on the same day. Deputy Governor Per Jansson and Jesper Hansson, Head of the Monetary Policy Department, will participate in the press conference.
